Personal Statement

In a separate letter (2 pages max., double spaced) please explain why this award is important to you, and any other information you would like the Arts Carleton Place awards committee to know about you and/or your project. This letter should be a personal reflection of you, your previous experiences and contributions and future goals and aspirations within your art form. This letter will serve as one tool for assessing your application.

Please submit the application form along with the following:

- Your personal statement.
- A brief synopsis of the project, defining what it is and how it relates to the arts and our community.
- A project proposal (one page, single-spaced) that outlines how this project meets our aims, what you plan to do with the award, and how you would benefit from the award.
- A project budget detailing the costs associated with the project.
- A current résumé and samples of your work (bibliography, disk, audio, slides, photos, etc., as appropriate).

I certify that the information provided to Arts Carleton Place is true.
